Gender Festival 2005: Call for Papers

We are pleased to announce that the Gender Study Conference and Festival will take place at TGNP's Gender Resource Centre, Mabibo Dar es Salaam Tanzania from 06th to 9th September 2005.

The 2005 Gender Festival is an open space for bringing together gender-focused groups, other civil society organizations, institutions, activists and other development actors working at various levels to meet, reflect and strategize on the progress made in struggles for gender equity, social transformation and participatory democracy. Discussions will take into account the present context of corporate-led globalization and 'free market' ideology, and their impact on development and democracy in Africa and the world over.

The main theme is: Gender Democracy and Development: Popular Struggles for an Alternative and Better World. Paper presentations in workshops will fall under the following sub themes:

1. Alternative Organizing / Leadership Styles in Struggles for an Alternative and better World
2. Ideological and Political Struggles
3. Popular Struggles within and/ or outside the dominant system/ paradigm
4. Rights /Entitlements Issues.

Submission Instructions:

Abstracts that have been at previous Tanzania Gender Festivals are not eligible for submission. Authors who submit papers agree to have their papers published in the proceedings and sign the copyright form. The submission should be in A4 and should be in word or PDF.
